Overdraft Services Consent ATM and One-Time Debit Card Transactions

WHAT YOU NEED TO KNOW ABOUT OVERDRAFTS AND OVERDRAFT FEES

An overdraft occurs when you do not have enough money in your account to cover a transaction, but we pay it anyway. Please refer to the Membership and Account Agreement (Agreement) for a more thorough explanation of factors that determine when an overdraft occurs and when you may incur a fee for overdrawing your account. The terms of the Agreement are incorporated herein, and both this document and the Agreement are meant to be interpreted together. We can cover your overdrafts in two different ways:

1. We offer SafetyNet, our standard overdraft service that comes with your account.
2. We also offer additional overdraft protection services, such as a link to a share/savings or overdraft line-of credit, which may be less expensive than SafetyNet - standard overdraft. To learn more, ask us about these plans.
3. This notice explains SafetyNet, our overdraft service.

4. What are the SafetyNet standard overdraft services that come with my account?

We do authorize and pay overdrafts for the following types of transactions:

- Share drafts/checks, and other transactions made using your checking account
- Automatic bill payments
- ACH transactions

We do not authorize and pay overdrafts for the following types of transactions unless you ask us to (see below):

- ATM transactions
- One-time debit card transactions

We pay overdrafts at our discretion, which means we do not guarantee that we will always authorize and pay any type of transaction.

If we do not authorize and pay an overdraft, your transaction will be declined.

5. What fees will I be charged if the Credit Union pays my overdraft?

Under our SafetyNet extended overdraft services, ATM and One-Time Debit Card Transactions:

- We will charge you a fee of $ _____ each time we pay an ATM or debit card transaction overdraft.
- We will charge you no more than six non-sufficient funds fees and no more than six uncollected funds fees per day.
- In the event that you opt-in and authorize the Credit Union to pay your ATM and one-time debit card transaction, there is no limit on the total fees we charge per day.
